THE AMERICAN
CHURCH REGISTER:

ADAPTED TO CHURCHES

OF

VARIOUS DENOMINATIONS.

NICHOLS & NOYES, PUBLISHERS,

117 WASHINGTON STREET,

BOSTON.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1868, by

NICHOLS & NOYES,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

The CHURCH REGISTER is an indispensable part of Church records. A growing sense of its importance has for a long time been manifest; and, indeed, it is clear that in proportion as churches realize that they are properly working bodies, they must also feel the importance of such full and methodical records and registers as shall keep the condition of their work ever distinctly in view. No business corporation thinks of dispensing with account books. There can be no question that care to secure completeness of record, helps to keep alive, in both ministers and churches, a sense of their responsibilities, and promotes system and perseverance in Christian labors. It was with the feeling, therefore, that we were aiming to furnish something more than a mere convenience, that we set to work to produce as good a Church Register as we could. The book which we here offer is better, we suppose, than any other hitherto published.

This REGISTER provides for the record of Pastors, Deacons, Church Committees, Sunday School Superintendents, Persons in charge of various departments of Church Work, Communicants, Baptisms, Marriages, Deaths, Attendance on Public Worship, Delegates to Councils, Delegates to Conferences, and finally, of Families, and of all Transient Persons under the care of the church.

The Register of Families is of great importance. Properly kept and studied, it would be full of reminder and suggestion; its pages crowded with family history and individual experience, illustrations of principles and methods and laws divine. This "Register of Families" is combined with the Church Register when desired, and is also issued in a separate volume by itself.

SUGGESTIONS.

1. This book is intended as a permanent record, that will steadily increase in value with the lapse of time. It should therefore be kept with the greatest neatness and accuracy.

2. It would be well worth while to be at considerable pains, if necessary, not only to make the lists of Pastors and Deacons complete, but also to enter all the particulars for which place is provided.

3. In the Register of Church Committees, the number of the years for which each Committee serves can be entered above the names for the year.

4. The record of Attendance on Public Worship is so arranged that one year occupies only two columns, or half a page; and the aggregate and average of the year can be ascertained with the greatest readiness. It would be well to enter them both at the bottom.

It could easily be made the duty of the Sexton to count the persons present at each service, and hand in the result to the pastor at the close of the day. Thus, most valuable and significant statistics would be obtained with very little trouble.

5. In the Register of Councils, it will be sufficient to enter the "Purpose" and "Result" very briefly. In the right hand column reference may be made to documents on file or to records, more fully setting forth the facts.

6. It seems desirable that every few years, the Register of Families should be printed—giving the names and the dates of joining the congregation and of reception to the communion—for the use of the people. This would be found to promote the acquaintance and mutual interest which is so beneficial and so agreeable.

It will be observed that some of the pages are ruled for two families and others for four.

7. In connection with the Register of Marriages will be found a digest of the Marriage Laws of various States affording such information as all persons competent to perform the ceremony ought to possess.

DIGEST OF MARRIAGE LAWS,

PREPARED FOR THE AMERICAN CHURCH REGISTER.

THE following extracts from the laws of several of the States, pertaining to the solemnization of marriages, are here given as interesting to Minister of the Gospel.

MAINE.

Every ordained minister of the gospel, and every person licensed to preach by an association of ministers, religious seminary, or ecclesiastical body, duly appointed and commissioned for that purpose by the Governor and Council, may solemnize marriages within the limits of their appointment. A minister wilfully joining persons in marriage, contrary to law, is liable to be fined one hundred dollars, and forbidden to again solemnize marriages. Such an one so forbidden, solemnizing a marriage, may be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisoned not over five years. Such ordained or licensed minister to hold his office during the pleasure of the Executive.

Ministers shall first require a Certificate of the Clerk of the city, town or plantation, where the parties respectively reside, or, if there be no such Clerk, then of the Clerk of the adjoining town or plantation.

Ministers believing parties are about to marry, when either of them cannot lawfully do so, may file a caution, and the reasons therefor, in the office of the Clerk where notice of the intentions should be filed.

Minister to keep a record, date, and place of marriage, the name, residence, and official station of the person by whom married, the names and surnames of the parties, age, color, occupation and residence of each, condition—single or widowed—whether first, second, or other marriage, and the occupation, birth-place and name of parents; and on or before the fifteenth day of April of each year, deliver to the Clerk of the city, town or plantation, in which such rite was performed, a copy of such record for the year ending the last day of March. Fine of ten dollars for not complying herewith.

The Secretary of State to furnish the necessary blanks.

Fee of one dollar and twenty-five cents for solemnizing and certifying a marriage.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Marriages may be solemnized throughout the State by any regularly ordained minister resident in the State and in regular standing in his denomination; and within his parish by any such minister residing out of the State, but having a pastoral charge wholly or partly in this State.

Minister to require a Certificate of the Clerk of the town where parties dwell, or of the adjoining town if no clerk in their own town. Minister to forfeit sixty dollars for each offence of joining persons in marriage without the same.

A minister, not authorized, joining persons in marriage shall be fined from one to three hundred dollars.

The groom and bride, before the marriage is solemnized, should sign a Certificate setting forth the residence of groom and bride; the age, color, occupation and birth-place of each; groom's father's name, birth-place and occupation; groom's mother's name and birth-place; bride's father's name, birth-place and occupation; bride's mother's name and birth-place; number of marriage of bride and groom. This Certificate should be given the clergyman, who is to sign the same and return it to the Registrar or Clerk of the city or town in which the marriage takes place, in the month of April next succeeding the marriage.

Fee for solemnizing marriage, one dollar.

VERMONT.

Any regularly ordained minister of the gospel, resident in the State and continuing to preach the gospel and perform the functions of his office, may solemnize marriages throughout the State; and he may require testimony under oath, which oath he may administer, as to the occupation, age, residence and relationship of the parties.

Any minister of the gospel solemnizing a marriage between parties either of whom shall be minors, or for any cause under guardianship, without the written consent of the guardian or guardians of such parties, or, in case of a town pauper, without the written consent of the Selectmen or Overseers of the Poor of each of the towns where said parties reside, or which are liable for the support of the same, shall be subject to fine or imprisonment.

For refusing or neglecting to make such return, fine not exceeding fifty dollars; for joining parties in marriage without said license, fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Unmarried persons cohabiting together as husband and wife may be married without a license; but clergymen shall make a record thereof in the Church Register.

For wilfully making a false return of any marriage, or pretended marriage, the fine is not less than one hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars, with imprisonment not less than three months nor more than ten years.

KANSAS.

Every clergyman may perform the ceremony of marriage.

Whoever solemnizes a marriage contrary to law shall be fined or imprisoned, or both; if he pleads guilty, the fine to be not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and the imprisonment not over five years.

No male under twenty-one or female under eighteen years of age shall be joined in marriage without the consent of parents or guardian. Fine not exceeding one thousand dollars for non-compliance herewith.

Every person solemnizing marriages shall keep a record thereof, and within three months send a Certificate thereof, containing christian and surname, to the Clerk of the county where the marriage took place. A forfeit of one hundred dollars for each failure to comply herewith. The Clerk to receive fifty cents for the record, to be paid by the parties.

Any person authorized to solemnize marriages making a false return wilfully, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars, and imprisoned not less than three months.

NEBRASKA.

Every licensed or ordained preacher of the gospel may perform the ceremony of marriage.

License from the Probate Judge of the county where the marriage is to take place must be first obtained.

The minister, on request, to give each party a Certificate under his hand, specifying names, ages, residence of parties, the names and residence of at least two witnesses, and the time and place; and shall within three months make and deliver to the Probate Judge of the county where the marriage took place a Certificate containing the same particulars. For neglecting to return the same to the Judge, or for undertaking to join others in marriage not being legally authorized so to do, or knowing of some legal impediment, or for knowingly and wilfully returning a false Certificate to the Judge, there is a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year.

NEVADA.

Any ordained minister of any religious society or congregation of the State who has or may obtain a license from the District Court to join persons together as husband and wife may solemnize marriages, as long as he shall continue a regular minister in such society or congregation. This license shall be produced to County Clerk where he may solemnize the marriage.

Any male less than twenty-one and female less than eighteen years of age, shall first obtain the consent of the father if living and capable, if not, of the mother or guardian, before being joined in marriage.

The parties shall first obtain a license to marry from the County Clerk where they or one of them reside; if they do not reside in the State, from the Clerk of any county in the State.

There is no particular form of solemnization of marriages, except that the parties shall declare in presence of the minister and of at least two witnesses besides the minister that they take each other for husband and wife.

Minister shall give to each of the parties, on request, a Certificate specifying names and residence of the parties, of at least two witnesses, and the time and place of marriage.

Minister shall make a record of the marriage, and within three months deliver to the Recorder of deeds of the county where the same took place, a Certificate under his hand specifying the same particulars as in the Certificate given to the parties. Minister shall pay one dollar to such Recorder to be collected from the parties. For neglecting to deliver such Certificate duly, the fine is not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars; for making a false Certificate, a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; for undertaking to join persons in marriage not being lawfully authorized so to do, or when any legal impediment exists, fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment till the same be paid.

OREGON.

Marriages may be solemnized by any minister or priest of any church or congregation in the State, any where in the State. No particular form of solemnization, except that the parties shall assent or declare in the presence of the minister and at least two witnesses besides the minister that they take each other for husband and wife.

Ministers shall give each of the parties, if required, a Certificate specifying the names and residence of the parties, and of the said two witnesses, the time and place of the marriage, the date of the license, and by whom issued; and within one month shall deliver to the County Clerk where the marriage took place a Certificate containing the same facts, and shall pay the Clerk for the record, the amount to be collected from the parties. For refusing or neglecting to deliver to the Clerk the Certificate, duly, fine not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for every five days of such neglect or refusal.

Parties must first obtain a license from County Clerk where the female resides, which shall not issue without the written consent of the parent or guardian, if the male is less than twenty-one or the female less than eighteen years of age; nor in any case unless the male is eighteen and the female fifteen years of age. If either of the parties has no parent or guardian within the State and the female has resided within the county where the license is applied for six months next preceding the application, a license may be issued without such consent.

The person solemnizing the marriage may retain in his possession the license.

If any person authorized to join in marriage other persons, within this State, shall wilfully or knowingly marry or attempt to join in marriage any white person and a negro, Chinese, or any person having one fourth or more negro, Chinese or kanaka blood, or more than one half Indian blood, he shall be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than one year, and be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.
